

Salt Lake County

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Salt Lake County has designated June 21, 2023 Employee Appreciation Day, an opportunity for county government leaders to recognize the work and achievements of county employees; and

WHEREAS, Salt Lake County employees provide vital resources and information, individualized assistance, high quality programs, civic engagement opportunities, world class facilities, trustworthy public safety, and dedicated service to the public; and

WHEREAS, Salt Lake County's workforce provides critical services to the community of Salt Lake County in times of emergencies such as severe weather, natural disasters, pandemics, and even the Jazz not making the playoffs; and

WHEREAS, Salt Lake County employs more than 9,769 number of employees whose collective work hours total more than 8,000,000 hours annually; and

WHEREAS, a local government is only as good as its employees and Salt Lake County has been continuously recognized as a leader in county government, both in the State of Utah and the nation; and

WHEREAS, Salt Lake County employees deserve to be acknowledged and thanked for their professionalism and unwavering dedication to their work;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jennifer Wilson, Mayor of Salt Lake County, do hereby join with the Salt Lake County Council and all County Elected Officials to recognize and express appreciation toward all Salt Lake County employees on this Tuesday, June 20th, 2023.

2023 Employee Appreciation Day

