File #: 19-223

Topic/Discussion Title:

Amending Sections 3.16.110, 3.20.070 and 3.22.040 of the Salt Lake County Code of Ordinances, 2001, setting forth the penalties for certain violations of the procurement ordinance.

Description: New state law says that violations of county ordinances will be infractions unless specified otherwise in the ordinance. DA's office and Contracts and Procurement is presenting amendments which identify certain violations that should stay at the level of misdemeanor - specifically procurement conflicts of interest and ethics violations by county officers, collusion to limit competition among bidders should remain class B misdemeanors and material communications with proposers violations should be a class C misdemeanor.

Requested Action: Consent

Presenter(s): Jason Yocom, Contracts & Procurement Division Director and Adam Miller, Civil Attorney with the District Attorney's Office

Time Needed: Consent

Time Sensitive: No

Specific Time(s): No

Requesting Staff Member: Ina Landry, Administrative Services Department Assistant
