Description and Justification:

CGC Air Handler Unit Study: New Capital project request for a Air Handler study at the County Government Center. An air handler unit on the north building is vibrating, nearing its end of life and creating issues for occupants of the area. This study will review the unit and other units in the area to determine if repairs or replacement is needed. The study will determine what is required and the estimated cost to fix the issue. The funds will be from the contingency account. The project will also need to be re-budgeted for 2019.
