I work as a consultant for the Community Food Basket Happyville Farm and assist the head manager Claudia Pine with strategic communication and social media management. I have worked in this position since May 2020. I created a logo for the organization, have assisted with the social media accounts, and created and help run a website for them (happyvillefarm.org). I am not an employee, but an outside consultant, like I mentioned above.

I declare under criminal penalty under the law of Utah that the foregoing is true and correct.

Keep Human is my husband's industrial design consulting business. Held Development LLC is the entity (owned by my husband and I) that holds title to a commercial property in South Salt Lake where my husband is developing building to house his consulting business (Keep Human.)

These entities DO NO business nor anticipates doing business with the County but are potentially subject to regulation by the county to the extent that all businesses that are incorporated within the county are potentially subject to decision/determination by the county (assessor, e.g.)

The nature of the work of the "covered person" does not intersect any of the departments that would potentially regulate these entities.
