2. PUBLIC COMMENT3. REPORT OF ELECTED OFFICIALS:

3.1. County Council Members

Council Member Winder Newton announced that Catalina Davison, Secretary, Council Office, became a citizen of the United States this past week.

Council Member Pinkney stated she attended the 2025 National Association of Counties (NACo) Legislative Conference in Washington, D.C., along with other Council Members, and took part in a financial policy steering committee, learning about the importance of bonds. She was also able to connect with County Council Members and people from other counties. It was a great opportunity.

Council Member Romero recognized the leadership of the County Council and Mayor's Office on a successful legislative session. A lot of bills were considered that affected Salt Lake County, but the County was well-represented in negotiations and advocacies.

Council Member Theodore expressed appreciation to the County's legislative team who worked hard on behalf of the County.

Council Member Theodore stated she attended a naturalization ceremony recently, at which a group of individuals from many different countries received their Certificates of Naturalization and became United States citizens. It took years for some individuals to accomplish that. She acknowledged Joseph Genda, New American Refugee Liaison, Mayor's Office for New Americans, for doing a good job organizing the ceremony.

Council Member Theodore stated she also attended the NACo Legislative Conference, which was an interesting and good experience.

Council Member Stringham stated she, too, attended the NACo conference, where she had the opportunity to make a lot of connections and spend time with Council Members, and understand how some of the changes of the new United States Administration might affect the County moving forward.

Council Member Stringham stated she has also met with the administrative offices of the County and started digging into the County budget. She was grateful for the work everybody had put into that and looked forward to finding ways to be more efficient and effective within the County.

Council Member Stringham announced that Sunday was International Women's Day. She thanked all the women she worked with at the County.

3.2. County Mayor

Mayor Jennifer Wilson made the following announcements:

- The 2025 National Association of Counties (NACo) Legislative Conference was productive this year. The County had great participation from the Council, and she enjoyed spending time with Council Members. She also enjoyed working with the NACo team to better understand opportunities for County residents and meeting with her delegation, and she appreciated Council Members for meeting with their delegation.
- The Health Department is preparing for a measles outbreak, as there have been recent cases, after having been relatively dormant for decades. Measles is highly transmissible and has an impact on people who get the disease, so it made sense for the Health Department to prioritize immunizations. During the late 50s and early 60s, the vaccine was not as effective as it is now, so people who were vaccinated during that time period, should probably get a booster vaccine. She commended the Health Department for always being one step ahead of the health issues.

- A lot is going on at County facilities for youth. The My County Rec Pass offers free access for youth to recreation facilities. It is also time to sign up for spring and summer programs. In addition, summer camps will be available at Wheeler Historic Farm, and there will be programs at the Clark Planetarium and County libraries.
- The Arts and Culture Division's Westside CultureFest will be held August 15th and 16th, at the Mid-Valley Performing Arts Center in Taylorsville.
- The Clark Planetarium is continuing its Science Utah Lecture Series, which is held the second Thursday of every month. The next lecture will be about butterflies, beetles, and bugs, on March 13th.
- The 2025 Lens of Magna Photography Contest is a community effort that the County is involved with. The contest encourages photographers of all levels to capture the beauty of Magna Main Street. Information about the contest is available at lensofmagna.com.
- Saturday, the County Library Division is hosting its annual Teen Formal Wear Swap. Buying formalwear can be a challenge for people with limited income, so this is a great way to get a prom dress or suit for less money. Recycling and reusing is also great to do.
- On March 15th, the Parks and Recreation Division will be conducting a free Youth Soccer Clinic at the Northwest Recreation Center and Try Hockey for Free at the Salt Lake County Ice Center.
- On Sundays, Wheeler Historic Farm holds its Winter Sunday Market.

(Approx. 10:05AM, Less than 5 Min.)
Informational

Ms. Hoa Nguyen, Budget & Policy Analyst, Council Office, reviewed the new hires, reclassifications, and incentive plans.

Council Member Stringham asked if the people from the District Attorney's Office receiving incentive plans were doing things outside their normal duties or filling in for someone who was not there anymore.

Mr. Ralph Chamness, Chief Deputy District Attorney, stated the incentive requests were for employees doing additional work outside their normal duties. He reviewed what each person was being asked to do in addition to their regular duties, all of which were critical functions.

Council Member Stringham asked if the incentives were temporary or ongoing incentives.

Mr. Chamness stated the incentives were ongoing. The District Attorney's Office has scarce resources, and this was the only tool it had to get the work done. It either needed additional employees or a way to incentivize employees and recognize the extra work they were doing.

Council Member Stringham stated incentive plans should not be ongoing. The work should be part of an employee's job. Those employees' jobs needed to be discussed with the Human Resources Division to see if there was a way to adjust the job title and descriptions to include the duties in the job descriptions, and a way to increase pay for an employee doing over and above what everyone else was doing in a particular job.
