Requested Agenda Title:

Proclamation Honoring the National Day of Prayer

Requested Agenda Item Description: May 1, 2025: This is an annual observance in the United States, typically held on the first Thursday of May each year. It is a day when people are encouraged to pray for the nation, its leaders, and its citizens. The day was established by an act of Congress in 1952, and it has been observed since then as a time for individuals and groups to gather in prayer for the well-being of the country. Various events, such as prayer gatherings and services, are held across the nation on this day.
