Keep Human is my husband's industrial design consulting business. Held Development LLC is the entity (owned by my husband and I), that holds title to a commercial property in South Salt Lake where my husband is developing a building to house his consulting business (Keep Human.)

These entities DO NO business nor anticipates doing business with the County but are potentially subject to regulation by the county to the extent all businesses that are both incorporated within the county are potentially subject to decision/determination by the assessor, etc.

The nature of the work of the "covered person" does not intersect any of the departments that would potentially regulate these entities.
