

Mayor Jenny Wilson

Proclamation

WHEREAS, excellence in education is vital to the success of Salt Lake County; and

WHEREAS, by preparing our students for the responsibilities and opportunities of the future, education develops the intellect through lessons on literacy, math, science and the arts; and

WHEREAS, the Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem Schneerson, of righteous memory, dedicated his life to the betterment of mankind and tirelessly advocated for a better education for all Americans; and

WHEREAS, the Rebbe taught that education should not be limited to the acquisition of knowledge in preparation for career, but should also build character, with emphasis on the universal moral and ethical values that are the basis of any peaceful civilized society; and

WHEREAS, the Rebbe also taught that the character of our young people is strengthened by serving a cause greater than self and by the anchor of virtues, including courage and compassion and that by instilling a spirit of service in our children, we create a more optimistic future for them and for our communities ; and

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States has established “Education and Sharing Day” as an annual national day to commemorate the Rebbe’s achievements and the lessons and the vision he set forth that are still relevant to us all today.

NOW, THEREFORE, that I, Jenny Wilson, Mayor of Salt Lake County, do hereby proclaim March 24, 2021

Education and Sharing Day in Salt Lake County and encourage educators, volunteers and residents to reach out to young people and work to create a better brighter and more hopeful future for all.

Jenny Wilson
Mayor

