Invocation - Reading or Thought - Pledge of Allegiance

Mr. Ralph Chamness, Deputy District Attorney, led the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America.

2. PUBLIC COMMENT

Ms. Shelley Brennan, Recorder, Duchesne County, and Legislative Chair, Utah Association of County Recorders, submitted a statement acknowledging and thanking Rashelle Hobbs, County Recorder, and the County for leading out on Property Watch and sharing it with all county recorders. Some county recorders would not have been able to provide this service to the public without Salt Lake County's help.

3. REPORT OF ELECTED OFFICIALS:

- 3.1. County Council Members
- 3.2. County Mayor

Ms. Catherine Kanter, Deputy Mayor of Regional Operations, made the following announcements:

- The Mayor will be presenting her budget next week, October 22nd, at 10:00 AM, at the Government Center. This was an incredibly tough budget year, but the budget team worked hard to ensure the budget was structurally balanced.
- The County's Daybreak Library branch received the first Zero Energy Commercial Building certification in Utah. Zero energy buildings generate their own renewable energy and minimize energy consumption, have a reduced carbon footprint, and save money for Salt Lake County. There is going to be a press conference on Friday, October 18th, at 11:30 AM, at the Daybreak Library.

- The Mayor's Office has been part of finding common sense solutions for the canyons, and wanted to recognize Council Members Theodore and Harrison, and Rep. Gay Lynn Bennion for their efforts on the Utah Department of Transportation's Cottonwood Canyons Sticker Program and its Traction Law.
- The Parks and Recreation Division announced the completion of the Salt Lake County Athletic Fields waterwise renovation project. A celebration will be held Thursday, October 17th, where an exhibition game will be held, featuring the Wasatch Soccer Club, Murray Soccer Club, and a youth rugby team. With these professional grade artificial turf fields in place, Salt Lake County will save about 50,000 gallons of water per day, which translates to an annual savings of approximately 7 million gallons.
- Friday, the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) will be announcing the opening of the first of four national customer assistance and resident engagement call centers in Salt Lake City. The call centers will increase the network of professionals devoted to helping people impacted by HUD programs and provide employment and professional development opportunities for residents.

4. WORK SESSION

4.1 Council Discussion Concerning Recorder Flyer in Property 24-2220 Tax Statement Mailing

Attachments: Staff Report

Presenters: Council Member Aimee Winder Newton. Seconded by Council Member Laurie Stringham.

(Approx. 12:45PM, 15 Min.)

Informational

Council Member Winder Newton stated a flyer that looked like a campaign flyer was sent with the property tax notice statements, and was being delivered to mailboxes the same week ballots were being mailed. Her first concern was that the front of the flyer had a picture of Rashelle Hobbs, County Recorder, on it with her name prominently displayed and an explanation of what she does. On the back side is information on how to sign up for Property Watch. A second concern was that Senator Wayne Harper's bill (S.B. 165) required the Treasurer to send out the Property Watch information. A third issue was that the Recorder's projected revenue was lower than anticipated and it had a contra account to meet in an already tight budget year.

She asked who created the artwork for the flyer; who paid for the design and printing of the recorder's flyer and the additional expenses to insert into the tax notices; where the money came from and who was it paid to; whether the Recorder's Office got bids for a one-sided flyer, with one color, which would have taken care of explaining Property Watch; and why the Recorder was doing this instead of the Treasurer. She asked Senator Harper to speak about the intent of his bill and what other counties were doing.

Senator Wayne Harper, Utah State Legislature, stated his intent in drafting the bill was to make sure people's property rights were preserved and that they had the ability to know if something was recorded on their property. The property tax section of the bill directed the Treasurer to provide notice, and the intent was that it be a simple, inexpensive notice. He has since had people contact him about what the County inserted into its tax notice, which went well beyond what he had intended. While he was not here to cast aspersions, he thought it was concerning that something of that nature was inserted with the tax notice rather than a black-and-white or single-paged insert providing the information about the program.

Ms. Rashelle Hobbs, County Recorder, read the following statement:

Good afternoon,

I want to take a moment to directly address the inclusion of the Property Watch informational insert in the 2024 tax notices.

I hope everyone here is familiar with Property Watch, a free notification service that I designed and implemented in 2019. After being elected, I worked closely with state Senator Karen Mayne on this initiative to better inform homeowners of recorded changes to their property - namely, owners wanting to confirm their mortgage loans were paid in full and they owned their homes outright.

However, I quickly became aware of predatory companies running commercials and mail ads for a similar service. These ads targeted some of our most vulnerable community members-our seniors. These companies were promising to "lock and monitor home titles" to prevent fraud, using scare tactics to convince seniors that their homes could be stolen if they didn't sign up-and pay steep fees-while most already live on fixed incomes. It has only become more important to me that property owners know about the Property Watch service.

For the past four years, my team and I have been urging Salt Lake County property owners not to fall for these fees and to use our free service instead. I also shared the Property Watch program with my colleagues in other counties so they could offer this vital service to their communities. Due to the program's success and the significant rise of title fraud cases in the real estate industry, the Utah legislature decided to require all county recorders to offer similar services and ensure all property owners are made aware of them.

The informational insert included in the property tax notice this year is Salt Lake County's implementation of Senate Bill 165, "Recording Notice Requirements Amendments," which was sponsored by Senator Harper and Representative Stenquist. The bill passed with unanimous support in both chambers, underscoring the Utah legislature's shared commitment to protecting property owners and raising awareness of serious scams like title fraud.

Per the bill's requirements, county recorders must announce property alert systems for the next three years in the annual tax notices - beginning in 2024, again in 2025, and finally in 2026. The goal is to ensure property owners are aware of this free government service meant to keep them informed about any documents recorded against their properties.

This year, my team and I originally considered adding a few lines of text directly onto the tax notice itself. However, the Treasurer's office counseled us that that route would likely be difficult for recipients to notice and read. We initially considered the smaller format due to budget concerns, but after a careful second review, we found that we could cover the cost this year without impacting other operations. Additionally, upon Treasurer staff advice, we determined that an insert would be far more effective. This decision was made because inserts are more noticeable than fine print, and the spirit of SB 165 is to encourage sign-ups for Property Watch, something I believe is best achieved through clear, accessible information.

The insert was designed in-house to match the marketing materials we use during community outreach, including visits to county libraries and senior centers, where Property Watch is particularly critical. My picture was included in the insert, and is included in Property Watch, Data Services, and other Office of the Recorder designs and materials, because I believe it's important for residents to recognize and feel connected to their elected officials and to be able to identify the duties that different elected officials perform. I want them to feel assured this service is offered by a trusted, legitimate source.

There was no special request from, or treatment granted to, me in the creation and inclusion of this insert. Other elected offices have used this method to share important information with the public because it works.

The return on investment is outstanding. Since the electronic tax notices went out on October 1st, we have had more than 2,000 registrations for Property Watch. That's more sign-ups in the first two weeks of October - than January through September of this year. Let's note that the median home price in Salt Lake County is around $500k. For just under $10,000 - paid for out of my budget - invested in the insert, hundreds of millions of dollars' worth of property value in Salt Lake County have an added level of security against fraud. This is an incredible feat for Salt Lake County's good governance. I am glad to share this success with all of you. Paper tax notices have also gone out and I would be happy to make a report to this body after a couple weeks with the most up to date data.

In closing my remarks, I must emphasize that the Council's attorney and the District Attorney's office have already addressed this topic, both confirming that there is no inappropriate use of county resources involved with the insert. The sole purpose of the insert is to promote Property Watch, a service designed to protect our residents and their property from fraud.

Thank you for your attention, and I look forward to continuing our efforts to protect the interests of Salt Lake County property owners.

Ms. Hobbs added that if the Recorder's Office had just put the information on the tax notice, it would have been placed at the bottom of the fourth paragraph in fine print on a notice the size of a bookmark, and she did not believe seniors would have noticed that.

Council Member Winder Newton stated Property Watch is a great service, but that was not what this was about. Had the photo not been included and had the flyer been a single-sided flyer, the Recorder would have saved significant tax dollars. She asked what the insert had cost, and where the funds had come from.

Ms. Hobbs stated the cost was $9,640, and it was paid for out of her budget.

Mr. Will Kocher, Chief Deputy Recorder, stated the funds came from Operations under expend.

Council Member Winder Newton asked if the Recorder's Office would be able to meet its contra account.

Mr. Kocher stated yes, the Recorder's Office has tightened its belt and been fiscally conservative, so it would be able to meet its contra account. He did not believe there was an additional cost to have the flyer double-sided, and it was printed by the Treasurer's Office's printer.

Council Member Winder Newton asked why the Treasurer had not put this out.

Mr. Wayne Cushing, County Treasurer, stated in past years when asked to put things on the property tax notice, the Treasurer's Office discovered that people did not see the notice, which was small, and they did not respond to it. He suggested to the Recorder's Office that it do an insert so people could see it. He just required that the Recorder's Office pay for it, and that the insert meet the statute, which it did.

Council Member Winder Newton stated she was working on an ordinance change to ensure this did not happen again and would be bringing that to the Council.

(Approx. 2:25PM, 10 Min.)

Discussion/Direction

Ms. Elaine Schurter-Sullivan, Benefits Manager, Human Resources Division, delivered a PowerPoint presentation entitled 2025 Benefits Funding Recommendations, reviewing the 2025 funding renewal and recommendations, which included an 8 percent increase for the medical plan and increases in the deductibles for both the Preferred Provider Organization (PPO) plan and the High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP), with all other core and voluntary benefits remaining unchanged.

Council Member Stringham asked what the current deductibles were.

Ms. Schurter-Sullivan stated they are currently $500 and $1,000 on the PPO plan, and $2,000 and $4,000 on the HDHP plan. The County would raise the PPO deductibles to $1,000 and $2,000, and the HDHP deductibles to $2,500 and $5,000.

Council Member Stringham asked what the cost would be if the County chose not to raise those.

Ms. Schurter-Sullivan stated by making those changes, the County would be saving about 6 percent on its medical renewal, which was about $6 million.

Mr. Darrin Casper, Deputy Mayor of Finance and Administration, stated the Mayor's Office talked with the employee groups about this issue, and explained it was committed to putting the money it saved on this initiative into pay, and the employee groups indicated a preference for that.

Ms. Sharon Roux, Director, Human Resources Division, stated a vote of approval for this is needed, so Ms. Schurter-Sullivan can finish preparing for open enrollment on November 4th.

A motion was made by Council Member Granato, seconded by Council Member Harrison, that this agenda item be approved. The motion carried by a unanimous vote.

Traction Law and Public Safety in the Cottonwood Canyons -Updated

Sponsors: Councilwoman Dea Theodore. Seconded by Councilwoman Suzanne Harrison & Council Chair Laurie Stringham.

Presenter: Councilwoman Dea Theodore.

(Approx. 2:45PM, 10 Min.)

Discussion/Direction

Council Member Theodore stated she met with ski resorts recently to see what they were doing to make the canyons safer this winter. People are driving up the canyons and sliding off the road, which is a danger for everyone. The ski resorts agreed that something different had to be done with the Cottonwood Canyons Sticker Program. She talked to the Utah Department of Transportation (UDOT) as well, which will be working with the Sheriff, Sandy City, and Cottonwood Heights City to help with enforcement of the Cottonwood Canyons Sticker Program. Representative Gay Lynn Bennion is opening a bill file to address UDOT's Traction Law as well. These efforts are to keep the canyons safe.

Rep. Gay Lynn Bennion, Utah State Legislature, stated in September, she was given a tour of the canyons by the Central Wasatch Commission and later met with the directors of all the ski resorts and UDOT. They all concluded that there had to be a law to change the current Cottonwood Canyons Sticker Program to make it enforceable. Alta and Snowbird receive 1.3 million ski visits a year, which was comparable to the largest national parks, and Little Cottonwood Canyon has more avalanches than any other canyon in the country. UDOT's current Traction Law is applied statewide and does not address those needs in Little Cottonwood Canyon. The law can only be implemented after the road is slick, and it only requires a tire tread of two thirty-seconds, which is a bald tire. She opened a bill file, which would require five thirty-seconds tread depth or chains on tires, and it would be effective from about November 1st to April 15th.

Council Member Theodore read the following statement:

Traction Law and Public Safety in the Cottonwood Canyons

On October 17, 2024, UDOT will be holding a press conference to announce the 2024/2025 UDOT Cottonwood Canyons Sticker Program. The sticker program was created in an effort to increase safety in the Cottonwood Canyons during the winter months. Vehicles with a tread depth of 5/32 are able to receive the sticker at certain tire shops.

Unsafe traction compromises the safety for all canyon users by slowing and blocking traffic flow, including blocking emergency services vehicles.

UDOT has established an agreement with the Sheriff's Office, Sandy City Police, and Cottonwood Heights Police to fund additional officers at the base of the Cottonwood Canyons. On traction required days, vehicles with the traction sticker will be allowed through while those without the sticker will be pulled over to ensure that their tires meet the minimum requirements or that they have chains.

We are also supportive of efforts by the Utah Legislature, including those by Representative Gay Lynn Bennion, to increase traction enforcement as well as to modify and update the traction laws and reconciling tread depth requirements to provide greater safety in the Cottonwood Canyons.

As part of this effort, the Council will also direct Kara Trevino, its legislative affairs coordinator to work closely with Representative Bennion and other stakeholders during the upcoming legislative session, and to update the Council about progress on improving vehicle safety and traction laws in the Cottonwood Canyons.

Councilwomen Theodore, Stringham, and Harrison

More information about the traction sticker program can be found here:

<https://www.udot.utah.gov/connect/2023/11/01/udot-cottonwood-canyons-sticker-program/>

Council Member Harrison stated she was excited about this being put into place to improve public safety and help with the traffic congestion.

A motion was made by Council Member Theodore, seconded by Council Member Harrison, that this agenda item be approved. The motion carried by a unanimous vote. Council Members Alvord and Stewart were absent for the vote.

Ms. Robin Chalhoub, Director, Community Services Department, invited Don Stirling, Executive Director, Miller Family Office and Miller Family Philanthropy, to speak.

Mr. Don Stirling, Executive Director, Miller Family Office and Miller Family Philanthropy, Larry H. Miller Company, reviewed the donation of $25 million from the Larry H. and Gail Miller Foundation, to support the Southwest Valley Arts Center. Gail Miller and the Miller family would be honored to have this new regional art center named the Larry H. and Gail Miller Family Arts Center. This would be a great recognition and would reflect the family's commitment to the arts, which enriches lives and enhances community. This arts center would bring great opportunities, excitement, and programming to the southwest part of the county. It was the Miller family's hope that this center would be more than a building, but also a gathering spot where life takes place, and where people can come together and enjoy creativity and experience the power of music, dance, and theater.

Mr. Matt Castillo, Director, Arts and Culture Division, reviewed the $25 million Naming Rights Donation from the Larry H. & Gail Miller Family Foundation to support Arts Center construction and design costs. The donation was made out to the Salt Lake County Foundation, and then funds and obligations will be transferred to Salt Lake County. In acknowledgement of the transformational gift, the arts center is proposed to be called the Larry H. & Gail Miller Family Arts Center, a Salt Lake County Facility. RESOLUTION NO. 6249

A RESOLUTION OF THE SALT LAKE COUNTY COUNCIL AUTHORIZING EXECUTION OF A REMAINDER PROPERTY PURCHASE AGREEMENT AND A RELATED QUITCLAIM DEED

RECITALS

A. Salt Lake County (“County”), has an ownership interest in real property (the “Property”), located in Kearns Metro Township, in an area known as Camp Kearns, at approximately 6162 West Lightning Lane, Kearns, Utah, Parcel No., 20-12-256-004, and as more specifically described in the quitclaim deed attached to the Remainder Property Purchase Agreement as Exhibit A.

B. County cooperated with several adjacent property owners to dedicate land for the development of public roads in Camp Kearns, resulting in the recording of the Camp Kearns Road Dedication Plat (the “Road Plat”) on May 3, 2021.

C. After recording the Road Plat, County still owned property in gaps between parcels owned by adjacent property owners and the dedicated public road (the “Gap Parcels”).

D. As part of the agreement with the adjacent property owners to create and construct the public roads, County had agreed to convey its interest in these Gap Parcels to certain adjacent property owners.

E. After the construction of the public roads and recording the Road Plat, additional discrepancies were discovered concerning ownership interests adjacent to the public roads, specifically, a parcel owned at the time of the recording of the Road Plat by Andermien Enterprises, LLC.

F. In order to address this ownership discrepancy and to complete the transfer of County’s interests in the Gap Parcel, County desires to enter into a Remainder Property Purchase Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 1, and to quitclaim any interests in the Gap Parcel to Eric Verharst the successor in interest to Andermien Enterprises, LLC.

G. The quitclaim deed to be signed by County (the “Quitclaim Deed”) is attached to the Remainder Property Purchase Agreement as Exhibit A.

H. It has been determined that the best interests of County and the general public will be served by executing the Remainder Property Purchase Agreement and the Quitclaim Deed which are attached to this Resolution.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED by the Salt Lake County Council that the sale and conveyance of the Property by Quitclaim Deed to Eric Verharst, as provided in the Remainder Property Purchase Agreement is hereby approved; and the Mayor is hereby authorized to execute the Remainder Property Purchase Agreement, and the Mayor and County Clerk are hereby authorized to execute the Quitclaim Deed, attached to the Remainder Property Purchase Agreement as Exhibit A, and to deliver the fully executed documents to the County Real Estate Section for delivery to Eric Verharst.

APPROVED AND ADOPTED in Salt Lake City, Salt Lake County, Utah, this 15th day of October, 2024.
