The Utah Division of Arts & Museums (UA&M) is a state agency involved in public funding for arts and museums. The Division and its governing board reserve sole discretion to award funds for projects, programs, acquisitions, commissions, or other activities. The Division's award of funds to a recipient for a project does not guarantee funding for that recipient for any future project. Funding levels are contingent on many factors, including available resources and number of applications. The Division reserves the right to revoke or recapture all or part of a recipient's awarded funds as deemed necessary in the Division's sole discretion and as permitted by applicable law. Funding from the State of Utah may not be used for anything that would be considered objectionable or obscene under Utah Code Section 32B-1-504.

UA&M reserves the right to revoke awarded public funds (current, multi-year, and/or future) as deemed necessary. The revocation of any public funds will be taken under consideration by the appropriate state board.

Debarred and suspended means that due to actions of a person or organization, that person or organization has been determined to be ineligible to receive federal funds for a determined amount of time. The suspension and debarment process protects the federal government from fraud, waste and abuse by using a number of tools to avoid doing business with non-responsible contractors.
5. The financial accounts shall be subject to reporting and/or audit by appropriate agencies of the State of Utah and/or the Federal Government. The grantee will be responsible for the safekeeping and identification of records maintained to account for funds awarded herein.
