

Ryan Benson

Owner SteriGear, LLC

Experience

Vice President Sales at SteriGear, LLC

May 2007 - Present (9 years 9 months)

Strategic development of growth for US and International medical sales portfolios. Directional leadership for US sales department. Business relationship leader for US and International product distribution partners. Member of the Board of Directors and Executive Leadership Staff.

Disposables and Accessories Manager at GE Healthcare

October 2003 - April 2007 (3 years 7 months)

Strategic management responsibilities for the sales, marketing, and development of new products as related to the disposables and accessories market within the GE OEC Medical Equipment lines as found in the OR, Cath Labs, Urological suites, and Surgery Centers in the United States.

Manager Risk Management at GE Capital

September 1998 - October 2003 (5 years 2 months)

Managed Collection Teams and Portfolios for commercial business debts. Managed the audits of the internal private label portfolios and insured compliance from a risk mitigation perspective and reported the results regularly to the Board of Directors. Represented the business during the external FDIC periodic reviews as they related to the Utah Banking institution from a risk mitigation standpoint.

Skills & Expertise

Leadership

Management

Sales

Business Strategy

Sales Operations

Strategy

Financial Analysis

Cross-functional Team Leadership

Education

Westminster College

Bachelor's Degree, Business Administration and Management, General
