

SCOTT R. BAIRD, P.E.

PROFESSIONAL OBJECTIVE Management of Public Works and Municipal Services

EDUCATION

Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah

- Master of Science Degree (April 1997), 3.33 G.P.A.
- Bachelor of Science Degree (April 1996)

Utah Valley University, Orem, Utah

- Associate of Applied Science Degree, December 1994, 3.4 G.P.A., Dean's List

Southern Utah University, Cedar City, Utah, 1989-1990

Lehi High School, Lehi, Utah, May 1989, 3.89 G.P.A

WORK EXPERIENCE

Department Director, Salt Lake County Public Works and Municipal Services, June 2016-present

Division Director, Salt Lake County Engineering and Flood Control, 2010-16

Project Manager, Salt Lake County Flood Control Engineering, 2007-10

Project Engineer/Project Manager, Salt Lake County Flood Control Engineering, 1997-2007

Engineering Intern, Salt Lake County Engineering and Flood Control, 1995-1997

Engineer, Baird Engineering, L.L.C., Lehi, Utah, 1992-2005

Laborer, Geneva Rock Products, 1993-1994

Laborer, Peck and Peckham Asphalt Paving, 1989

Custodian / Dishwasher, various colleges, 1989-1997

RELATED SKILLS

Engineering design, storm drain master planning, surveying, public engagement, conflict resolution, organizational behavior, employee and manager mentoring and development, team management, team building, budget.

PERSONAL

Speak, read, and write Spanish fluently. Artist (oil painting). Other interests include fishing, golf, gardening, ukulele.

REFERENCES

Available upon request.