Requested Agenda Item Description: We are offering for your consideration the nomination of six (6) applicants to serve on the Dimple Dell Advisory Board, as well as the reappointment of one member who recently completed his first term in office. The Board directed interested persons to submit an application apply through the County's Board Management system. Applications and resumes were shared with sitting Board members for review. After review, the Board interviewed each applicant and have approved moving these names forward to the Mayor. The Mayor has approved these names and forward them to the council for advice and consent.
