HONORING COUNCIL MEMBER RICHARD SNELGROVE FOR HIS YEARS OF SERVICE AND EXPERTISE TO THE COUNTY

The Utah Taxpayers Association has recognized Richard with its prestigious Taxpayer Advocate of the Year Award "in recognition of his exemplary defense of taxpayers against tax increases and non-essential county spending."

AND WHEREAS, Richard's fiscal conservatism has even carried over to other areas of his life. When one of his colleagues offered to take him to lunch, he chose Arctic Circle and was especially happy when there were coupons involved.

AND WHEREAS, he was instrumental in organizing the Municipal Services District and served on its board for more than three years. He has also served on boards for the Jordan River Commission, Salt Lake County Library, Unified Fire Authority, Wasatch Front Waste and Recycling District, Clark Planetarium, Utah Association of Counties and Salt Lake Council of Governments.

He sponsored an ordinance requiring that a budget including any tax increase be presented before the general election. He proposed expanded citizen comment opportunities in Council meetings and spearheaded the new citizen call-in opportunity during Council meetings.

AND WHEREAS, Richard is an outspoken advocate for clean air and water and recognizes these are vital for sustained quality of life. He planned and spearheaded Salt Lake County's participation with UTA for a "no fare" transit during the winter inversion months and sponsored a resolution in support of saving The Great Salt Lake.

AND WHEREAS, Richard is an avid outdoorsman and loves to spend time in the canyons hiking and camping. He has advocated for open space and additional trails during his years of service.

A PROCLAMATION OF THE SALT LAKE COUNTY COUNCIL HONORING COUNCIL MEMBER STEVE DEBRY FOR HIS YEARS OF SERVICE AND EXPERTISE TO THE COUNTY

WHEREAS, Councilman Steve DeBry has served as a Salt Lake County Councilman since 2010, and was re-elected in 2012, 2014 and 2018. He served as chair of the council in 2013, 2017 and 2021.

AND WHEREAS, Steve and his wife, Lorraine, have three children and six grandchildren. A law enforcement professional for over four decades, Steve serves as Chief of the Millcreek Precinct of the Unified Police Department and has a career filled with public service as he has protected families, individuals and businesses.

AND WHEREAS, Steve graduated from the University of Utah in Political Science. Additionally, he has two associates degrees from Salt Lake Community College, graduating with honors. He also attended and graduated from the F.B.I. National Academy, F.B.I. Intermountain Executive Command College, West Point Leadership Academy, and the Utah Peace Officers Standards and Training Command College.

AND WHEREAS, Steve's knowledge of public safety has been an incredible asset to the county council. Whether it was during budget deliberations, or other policy decisions, his background and perspective were a valued part of the discussion.

AND WHEREAS, when Salt Lake County had issues with their auditor a decade ago, Steve was the council member who questioned adding additional employees to the budget and made the motion to remove the financial responsibilities from the auditor at the time, helping to transform that office in a positive way.

AND WHEREAS, he is known for his honesty, integrity, forthrightness, and putting the needs of others first. Steve is incredibly passionate, and deeply cares about the people he serves.

AND WHEREAS, Steve sometimes wears the coolest MacGyver leather jacket.

AND WHEREAS, he knew how to hire competent senior policy advisors. Brian Maxwell, Richard Jaussi and Kyler Brower provided Steve with valuable advice, but were also great assets to the council office and other council members.

AND WHEREAS, Steve is a fiscal conservative through and through. He viewed his most important stewardship to be protecting precious and limited taxpayer dollars, ensuring an efficient, effective, and streamlined county government. During budget discussions he would propose ideas to save the county money, leverage resources in a more impactful way, and invest in items that would save taxpayer dollars over the long run.

AND WHEREAS, he was often heard using the phrase, "It's nothing personal, it's business." Steve knew what he was elected to do and though he sometimes had a tough exterior, he cared about people and was determined to represent his constituents in the best way possible.

Speaking of tough exterior...we are pretty certain Steve can bench press more than all the other council members combined. He is a regular at the gym.

AND WHEREAS, Steve values responsible growth, public safety, transparent government, protection of our environment, and initiatives that improve the quality of life of families in the communities he represents.

reason. He was never afraid to stand alone for something he believed in. He was a big advocate for the west side of the valley and looked for ways to serve the cities he represented.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED: That the Salt Lake County Council honor Councilman Steve DeBry for his many years of service. He will be missed. He has served his constituents well and impacted Salt Lake County residents in a positive way during his tenure. Thank you, Councilman DeBry!
