March 22, 2017

Dear Salt Lake County Council Members,

I am writing on behalf of the Salt Lake Honorary Colonels to request your support and acceptance on behalf of the Salt Lake County Office of Sheriff, for a donation in the amount of $24,000. This financial contribution is intended to be spent on events and expenses for the employees of the Office of the Sheriff which promotes morale and inspires a thriving organization. This funding is also for a banquet which was created to honor those working in the field of law enforcement, as well as citizens for meritorious service that stems above and beyond the call of duty.

As you may know, the Salt Lake County Office of Sheriff currently employs nearly 1800 men and women who provide a multitude of law enforcement services to the one million residents of Salt Lake County. These services include corrections, transportation, indigent medical and mental health service, civil process, search and rescue, court and facilities security as well as full service law enforcement patrol, investigations and special operations functions.

The Salt Lake Honorary Colonels is pleased to continue our financial support for these employees who work hard and are dedicated to providing a safe community for everyone.

Sincerely,

Michael Drury
President
