SALT LAKE COUNTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

TO: ALL SALT LAKE COUNTY OFFICERS, VOLUNTEERS, BOARD MEMBERS, AND EMPLOYEES (COVERED PERSONS*)
FROM: OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR SALT LAKE COUNTY
SUBJECT: STATUTORY ETHICAL AND DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

All Salt Lake County covered persons* must be aware of and abide by a Utah law which prohibits, or requires disclosure of certain actual or potential conflicts of interest between public duties and private business interests, if any. The County Officers and Employees Disclosure Act (§§ 17-16a-1, et seq., U.C.A., 1953 as amended) sets the following requirements:

PROHIBITED ACTS:

1. No covered person shall (1) use a County position* for private advantage by revealing confidential, controlled, private or protected information gained through that position, (2) use his or her County position to secure special privileges, or (3) accept other investment or employment that would reasonably be expected to interfere with the ethical performance of his or her public duties.
2. No covered person shall knowingly receive, accept, take, seek or solicit, directly or indirectly, any gift or loan for him or herself or another if: (1) the gift or loan would reasonably tend to influence him or her in the performance of official duties, or (2) the donor has been, is, or may become involved in any official county business. Exceptions to subparagraph (2) are occasional non-money gifts of a value less than $50.00; public awards; bona fide business loans; or campaign contributions actually used in a political campaign. Paid Salt Lake County officers and employees are prohibited from accepting any gifts of more than nominal value or which violate the Salt Lake County Ethics Code (SLCo. Ordinance sections 2.07.203 through 2.07.207).
3. No covered person, acting in a county position, may accept payment for helping a private person or business in any transaction with the county. Payment may be accepted if the transaction is not in the covered person's official capacity and disclosure is made as set forth below.
4. A covered person may not be involved with any private business which is regulated by the county, may not be involved in any transaction between their private business interests and the county, and may not be involved in any other actual or potential conflict of interest unless the nature and extent of the private business interest(s) are disclosed as explained below.

Such oral disclosures shall be made part of the minutes of the meeting.
3. Any covered person involved with a private business that does or anticipates doing business with the county must disclose that involvement.
4. Any covered person who has a personal or business interest of any kind which raises an actual or potential conflict of interest with his or her position must disclose that interest.
5. All written disclosures must be sworn statements containing the information required above and be in a form similar to that on the reverse side of this document. All such statements are public records, open to public inspection. All disclosures must be made as follows: Orally in any meeting of a county agency, board or division where a transaction is discussed involving a matter in which the covered person has an interest. In writing when the conflict first arises. The general written disclosure must also be re-filed every January of each year that the outside interest persists. The written disclosure is filed through the covered person's chain of command to the immediate supervisor, volunteer or community liaison, division director, department head or elected official, and county council.

This business interest is being disclosed because it falls under the requirement to list any potential conflicts of interest because the business is regulated by Salt Lake County and I am on the Board of Directors. The business activity is leasing commercial and residential property. There has not been any business with Salt Lake County in the past, none is anticipated in the future, and any potential conflict of interest is extremely remote. Also, my position at the County is not related to the regulation for this type of business, or any business.
