ORGANIZATION OVERVIEW (which could include mission, history, and demographics served):

Kids in our program face barriers to success, like living in poverty, living with a single parent, struggling in school, or being a refugee and/or person of color. They also face multiple risk factors and have a higher chance of dropping out of school, using drugs, and becoming a statistic in our legal and judicial system rather than rising above those challenges. We work daily to become part of the solution for these children by putting a mentor in their lives.
