

Proposed Salt Lake County Redistricting Commission Application Process

July 14: Council approves application documents and proposed timeline and process for review

July 17: Council staff makes applications available to public

August 7: Applications due to Council

August: Council and staff review submitted applications

September 1: Council makes and approves appointments to Redistricting Commission, designates staff to support and liaise with Redistricting Commission and other County officials

September/October: Redistricting Commission holds initial meeting(s), selects a chairperson, drafts proposed rules for governance and operation, and drafts a proposed calendar for the redistricting process

October 27: Council adopts Redistrict Commission's rules of governance and operation, and a proposed calendar for the redistricting process