INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Trustees Friends of Tracy Aviary Salt Lake City, Utah

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Friends of Tracy Aviary (a nonprofit organization) (the Aviary), which comprise the statements of financial position as of September 30, 2020 and 2019, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used and reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Friends of Tracy Aviary as of September 30, 2020 and 2019, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Other Reporting Required by Government Auditing Standards

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued our report dated January ____, 2020, on our consideration of the Aviary's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Aviary's internal control over financial reporting and compliance.

Nature of Activities

Tracy Aviary's (the Aviary) mission is to inspire curiosity and care for birds and nature through education and conservation. The Aviary is the largest and oldest free standing public aviary in the nation, and one of only three facilities accredited by the Association of Zoos and Aquariums in Utah. The Aviary's strategic priorities are to be excellent in all it does, have the capacity to thrive, and be an outstanding community partner. Now in its 82nd year, the Aviary is a cultural landmark, public garden, leader in environmental education and strong voice for birds and conservation. The Aviary manages 9 acres in Salt Lake City's Liberty Park and has recently invested more than $35,000,000 transforming this community treasure. Today the Aviary features beautiful, naturalistic exhibits, landscapes filled with native and drought tolerant plant species creating a habitat for birds and insects, and a range of programs to educate children of all ages from cradle to well past retirement. Its education programs reach over 60,000 children each year through interactive exhibits, camps and classes, and hands-on experiences in classrooms and neighborhoods across the Wasatch Front. These engaging and educational encounters with birds from as close as the Great Salt Lake and as far as the Andes Mountains often ignite the first essential sparks that propel a life-long appreciation for the natural world. The Aviary also works to better understand avian species and ecosystems through its conservation initiatives. Citizen science volunteers provide valuable insights which help influence decisions that impact open space design and species survival, preserving Utah's natural beauty and the diversity of the Rocky Mountains for future generations.

In 2020 the Aviary opened a small, half-acre Jordan River Nature Center (JRNC) in South Salt Lake City adjacent to the Jordan River. This is the first step in a proposed $30,000,000 project to build a second 10 - 12 acre campus in JRNC and a 4 acre campus in Riverton. These campuses will allow the Aviary to further its mission and reach more people in its community.

Accounting Principles

The Aviary's accounting policies conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP).

The Aviary follows Accounting Standards Update ASU 2016-14, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities. Under those standards, net assets, contributions, service fees, gains, losses, and expenses are classified as net assets with donor restrictions and net assets without donor restrictions, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. Contributions and net assets are classified into two categories based on donor-imposed restrictions as follows:

Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions - Net assets without donor restrictions are able to be spent by the Aviary at its discretion and are subject to self-imposed limits by action of the governing board. Board-designated net assets may be earmarked for future programs, investment, contingencies, purchase or construction of fixed assets, or other uses.

Net Assets With Donor Restrictions - Net assets with donor restrictions include contributions of cash and other assets received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets, or have been restricted by the donor to be held and invested in perpetuity. When a donor restriction expires or a purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with restrictions are reclassified to net assets without restrictions and reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents are generally comprised of certificates of deposit, and certain highly liquid investments with original maturities when purchased of three months or less.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair value is defined as the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The following hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation methodologies used to measure fair value:

- Level 1 inputs are quoted prices for identical assets and liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2 inputs are observable inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1, such as quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets or quoted prices for identical or similar assets and liabilities in markets that are not active.
- Level 3 inputs are unobservable inputs that reflect the Aviary's own assumptions, consistent with reasonably available assumptions made by other market participants.

The fair value of marketable securities is measured using Level 1 inputs.

Marketable Securities

The Aviary's marketable securities are classified as available for sale and are reported at fair value, with unrealized gains and losses, reported in investment income. Fair value is based on quoted prices for identical assets in active markets. Realized gains and losses are determined on the basis of the actual cost of the securities sold. Permanent declines in value, if any, are included in income. Dividends on equity securities are recognized in income when declared.

Accounts and Grants Receivable

Accounts and grants receivable consist of amounts due from education workshops and also amounts billed to government agencies that were not received prior to September 30, 2020 and 2019. Accounts and grants receivable are periodically evaluated for collectibility based on past credit history with customers and government agencies and their current financial condition. An allowance for doubtful accounts has not been established because management believes that all accounts and grants receivable will be fully collectible.

Promises To Give

Promises to give are recorded at estimated fair value. Amounts due later than one year, if any, are recorded at the present value of estimated future cash flows. The Aviary estimates an allowance, if any, based on analysis of specific donors, taking into consideration the age of past due pledges and an assessment of the donor's ability to pay. At September 30, 2020 and 2019, there were no outstanding promises to give or related valuation allowances.

Inventory

Inventory consisting primarily of souvenirs and gifts, is stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Cost is determined using the average cost method.

Property and Equipment

The Aviary has, throughout its history, acted as the vehicle to raise funds through contributions for buildings, facilities and improvements. These contributions, in combination with funds received from government agencies, have been used by the Aviary to construct and improve the facilities and buildings on the Aviary grounds. The Aviary's policy is to capitalize additions purchased solely with contributed funds or operating revenue. Facilities constructed on the Aviary grounds using money from government agencies are not recorded in the financial statements as they are not owned by the Aviary.

In June of 2019, the Aviary signed a new a lease agreement with Salt Lake City Corporation. Under this agreement, Salt Lake City leases to the Aviary all the buildings and other real property located within the perimeter in which the Aviary is located on the Liberty Park campus. In return, the Aviary maintains and repairs the leased property. Should the lease with Salt Lake City expire, the renovations or property improvements made by the Aviary would become the property of the City. The renewable agreement expires June 30, 2024.

In September of 2019, the Aviary signed a new lease agreement with Salt Lake County. Under this agreement, Salt Lake County leases to the Aviary all the buildings and other real property located within the perimeter in which the Aviary is located on the JRNC campus. In return, the Aviary maintains and repairs the leased property.

Property and equipment included in the statements of financial position of the Aviary include donated assets, leasehold improvements, vehicles, and furniture and equipment.

Property and equipment on the statements of financial position are recorded at acquisition cost, or if donated, at the fair market value at the date donated. The Aviary capitalizes additions that exceed $5,000. Depreciation on all assets is calculated using the straight line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets, which range from five to twenty-five years. Total depreciation expense for the years ended September 30, 2020 and 2019 was $375,087 and $372,909, respectively.

The Aviary follows the policy of capitalizing internal costs directly related to the construction of leasehold improvements when employees of the Aviary are directly involved in the management and supervision of contractors. During the years ended September 30, 2020 and 2019, the Aviary capitalized $0 and $131,000, respectively of internal costs. These capitalized costs will be included in the future depreciation of the associated leasehold improvements.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

Long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of the assets might not be recoverable. Impairment losses are recognized for the amount by which an asset's carrying value exceeds its future expected undiscounted cash flows. No impairment of long-lived assets occurred during the years ended September 30, 2020 and 2019.

Contributions

Unconditional promises to give are recognized as contributions when received at the net present value of the amounts expected to be collected. Contributions are considered available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor. Amounts received that are restricted for future periods or by the donor for specific purposes are reported as net assets with donor restrictions that increases that net asset class. When a donor-imposed time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the accompanying statements of activities and changes in net assets as net assets released from restriction. Donor-restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same year the contribution is received are reported as net assets without donor restrictions. Capital campaign contributions are considered net assets with donor restrictions until the asset is placed into service.

Funding from all government sources for operations is considered to be without donor restrictions as long as it is expended under contract guidelines and is expended in the year for which it is contracted.

In accordance with ASC 958-605-25-16, Contributed Services, the Aviary recognizes contributions of services only if the services received (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are provided by individuals possessing those skills and would typically need to be purchased if not provided by donation. The Aviary receives donated veterinary care and produce (program service expense) that meet the accounting standards to be recorded in the financial statements. On January 30, 2020, the World Health Organization ("WHO") announced a global health emergency because of a new strain of coronavirus originating in Wuhan, China (the "COVID-19 outbreak") and the risks to the international community as the virus spread globally beyond its point of origin. In March 2020, the WHO classified the COVID-19 outbreak as a pandemic, based on the rapid increase in exposure globally.

For the year ended September 30, 2020, our revenues related to admissions and other operational sources were adversly affected by COVID-19.

The full impact of the COVID-19 outbreak continues to evolve as of the date of this report. This pandemic has adversely affected global economic activity and greatly contributed to significant deterioration and instability in financial markets. INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING AND ON COMPLIANCE AND OTHER MATTERS BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS PERFORMED IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

To the Board of Trustees Friends of Tracy Aviary

We have audited, in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, the financial statements of Friends of Tracy Aviary (a nonprofit organization) (the Aviary), which comprise the statement of financial position as of September 30, 2020, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, and have issued our report thereon dated Feburary 2, 2021.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements, we considered the Aviary's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) to determine the audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Aviary's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Aviary's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Aviary's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph of this section and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Compliance and Other Matters

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether the Aviary's financial statements are free from material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance or other matters that are required to be reported under Government Auditing Standards.

Purpose of this Report

The purpose of this report is solely to describe the scope of our testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of the Aviary's internal control or on compliance. This report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering the Aviary's internal control and compliance. Accordingly, this communication is not suitable for any other purpose.
