To sign up to give public comment online, please email your name and address to councilwebex@slco.org the Monday preceding the Tuesday Meeting, after 3:00 PM.

Mr. Steve Van Maren stated the Council is expected to approve the bylaws for the Redistricting Commission. These bylaws require a majority vote by the quorum of four for approval. He believes a minimum of four votes should be required, as the Commission is bipartisan.

Ms. Amy McKasson stated she favors mandated masking in schools or, ideally, in the entire County. This year's school age case numbers are higher than last year's numbers. One of the schools in Salt Lake County reached test-to-stay thresholds. Primary Children's Hospital is short staffed and overburdened. The COVID-19 virus is adapting and mutating. Policy makers also need to adapt.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, across the country, communities will celebrate national Welcoming Week on September 10-19, 2021; and

WHEREAS, Salt Lake County is home to people of all backgrounds, including those who were not born in the United States, but now call it home; and

WHEREAS, Salt Lake County celebrated its first annual Welcoming Week in 2016, and became Certified Welcoming on June 19, 2018 to continue to promote compassion, unity, and respect, with a shared vision that all community residents should be valued and protected; and

WHEREAS, our County depends on making sure that all feel welcome here. Today, new residents are a vital part of our community- bringing fresh perspectives and new ideas, starting businesses, and contributing to the vibrant diversity that we all value; and

WHEREAS, today, more than ever, we see an increased need to welcome those fleeing conflict, oppression, and unrest in countries all over the world, especially the thousands of Afghans fleeing violence and political strife; and

WHEREAS, this week, we honor the spirit of unity that is bringing neighbors together across Salt Lake County. During Welcoming Week, we invite all of Salt Lake County to join this movement of communities nationwide by renewing our commitment to our core American values and by taking action in the spirit of welcoming. By working together, we can achieve greater prosperity and make our community the kind of place where diverse people from around the world feel valued and want to put down roots; and

By recognizing the contributions that we all make to create a vibrant culture and a growing economy, we make our community more prosperous and more inclusive to all who call it home; and

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Mayors and elected leaders of Salt Lake County, and cities throughout Salt Lake County, do hereby proclaim September 10, 2021 - September 19, 2021, as

and encourage the business community, civic groups, other units of government, and community institutions to undertake initiatives beyond this proclamation, to make the region a welcoming place for new and long-term residents alike.

Adopted this 31st day of August, 2021.

Mayor

Chair

Mayor Jennifer Wilson stated in recognition of Welcoming Week, she and 14 other city Mayors have signed the proclamation. People can visit welcomingweek.saltlake.org to see what events are taking place. Many residents of Salt Lake County are heartbroken because of the current events in Afghanistan. Salt Lake County is accepting refugees and residents are opening up their homes and churches in support and investment of refugees. She then introduced Joseph Genda, the New American and Refugee Liaison. Mr. Genda has been in this position for six weeks and is doing an amazing job.

Mr. Joseph Genda, New American and Refugee Liaison, stated he came to the United States in 2007 as refugee. He is originally from Sierra Leone. He experienced horrible things in his native country and spent time in a refugee camp in Guinea. He is very grateful to be in United States and to be able to support his wife and children here. Assimilation has been challenging, but he is grateful to be naturalized and to have been chosen by the Mayor's Office to act as liaison.

Council Member Debry stated he would like to say a few words on the subject. This country is all about giving refuge to people who need it. He and his wife were recently in Jackson, Wyoming, where they witnessed many people of varying race and genders carrying flags in recognition of Riley McCallum, a US Marine, who recently died in Afghanistan. He stood in front of the hearse as people cried for a stranger they had never met. Riley McCallum died for the reasons articulated by Mr. Genda.

RESOLUTION NO. 5895

A RESOLUTION OF THE SALT LAKE COUNTY COUNCIL DECLARING CERTAIN EXCESS PROPERTY AVAILABLE FOR DISPOSAL AND APPROVING THE ACQUISITION OF A FEE INTEREST IN CERTAIN REAL PROPERTY FROM KELLY JENSEN, SCOTT H. BOETTCHER, LEONA H. LUNDBERG, AND THE JAMES DUANE & KAREN FERN BOETTCHER LIVING TRUST, DATED JULY 16, 2013, AS PART OF THE SURPLUS CANAL PROJECT AND THE TRANSFER OF THE COUNTY'S EXCESS REAL ESTATE INTEREST IN ADJACENT PROPERTY TO THE SAME

RECITALS

A. Salt Lake County ("County") is responsible for the operation and maintenance of the Surplus Canal, which is designed to divert water from the Jordan River to control flood flows.

B. Over the years, the County has acquired various types of interest from private property Owner for the Surplus Canal's existing location.

C. The County is currently working on a project to clarify and make its real property interests along the Surplus Canal uniform and remove encroachments into the Surplus Canal's levee system.

D. There is a parcel of real property located in Salt Lake City along 2100 South that is adjacent to the Surplus Canal where the interests of the County need to be clarified and encroachments removed (the "Subject Property"). Kelly Jensen, Scott H. Boettcher and Leona H. Lundberg (the "Siblings"), own an undivided 50% interest in the Subject Property, and the James Duane & Karen Fern Boettcher Living Trust, dated July 16, 2013 (the "Trust"), own the remaining undivided 50% interest in the Subject Property. James Duane Boettcher is the trustee of the Trust. The Siblings and the Trust are collectively referred to as the "Owners" of the Subject Property.

E. The County has a variety of interests over portions of the Subject Property, including easements for the purpose of maintaining the Surplus Canal (the "Historical Interests"); however, to meet its commitments to maintain the Surplus Canal, the County now needs to perfect its ownership interest in fee to a specified portion of the Subject Property that is affected by these Historical Interests.

F. There are portions of the Subject Property that are subject to the Historical Interests where the County is not seeking to acquire a fee interest. The County is willing to release any right, title, or interest it may have in these excess portions of the Historical Interests in the Subject Property back to the Owners by delivering a quitclaim deed covering these specified areas.

G. Following negotiations, the County and the Owners have agreed to a settlement the terms of which are outlined in the Right of Way Contract attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Contract"), providing that, among other things, the Owners will convey a portion of the Subject Property to the County by quit-claim deed ("Owners' Deed") in exchange for a payment of $145,000.00.

H. To clear up any cloud on the Owners' remaining title, the County will quit-claim to the Owners any excess interest it may hold by virtue of the Historical Interests in the Owners' remaining Property (the "Excess Interests").

I. It has been determined that the best interests of the County and the general public will be served by accepting the Owners' Deed from the Owners and quit-claiming the Excess Interests to the Owners. This transaction will be in compliance with all applicable state statutes and county ordinances.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED by the Salt Lake County Council (the "County Council") that the County's Excess Interests are hereby declared available for disposal.

IT IS FURTHER RESOLVED by the County Council that the Contract between the County and the Owner is hereby approved, and the Mayor is hereby authorized to execute the Contract and deliver the fully executed document to the County Real Estate Section.

IT IS FURTHER RESOLVED by the County Council that the Mayor and County Clerk are authorized to execute the quit claim deed for the Excess Interests in accordance with the terms of the Contract, to deliver that fully executed document to the County Real Estate Section for disposition as provided in the Contract, and to receive the Owners' Deed.

APPROVED and ADOPTED this 14th day of September 2021.
