The Council discussed the various means to live stream, the cost involved, and promotion of the Growth Summit series.

Mayor Jennifer Wilson stated she is planning two town hall meetings in the southwest area of the valley and would be happy to promote the summit at that time. She is working with her team on a promotions budget. They are considering a targeted mailing and that could also promote the summit.

Ms. Lisa Hartman, Senior Policy Advisory, Council Office, stated if a project costs less than $50,000, an RFP is not required. The Council would need three written bids from vendors and would work through Contracts & Procurement. This could be done by next Tuesday.

A motion was made by Council Member Jensen, seconded by Council Member Granato, to allocate a maximum of $9,000 to live stream three growth summits, to engage the Information Technology Division to see what internal options might exist to do this, and to work with the Contracts & Procurement Division to procure the necessary services and equipment.
