Mayor Jennifer Wilson delivered the 2020 budget presentation. She stated included in the budget is an 8.7 percent tax adjustment, which will stabilize critical programs and services as well as fund two additional County programs that are in serious need of more resources.

Mr. Darrin Casper, Deputy Mayor of Finance and Administration, delivered a PowerPoint presentation. He reviewed the budget goals, budget direction, adjusted tentative budget, and the structural analysis of the budget. He then highlighted various items within the 2020 proposed budget and provided an analysis of the budget. In summary, the budget balances all funds, includes a tax increase, provides funds to open new facilities for libraries, parks & recreation, and arts & culture, and places a strong emphasis on domestic/sexual violence and public safety.

2.2 Notice of Proposed 2020 Tax Increase in Conformance With Utah Code Ann. Section 59-2-919(3)(a).19-1266

The County of Salt Lake is proposing to increase its property tax revenue. The County of Salt Lake tax on a $368,000 residence would increase $33.60 per year. The County of Salt Lake tax on a $368,000 business would increase $61.09 per year. Purpose of the proposed increase is to provide funding for services newly mandated by the State of Utah, to provide for the operations of new or expanded voter-approved facilities in Salt Lake County government and other essential government purposes. Approximate percentage increase in property tax budgeted revenue would be 8.72% above 2019 property tax budgeted revenue excluding new growth.
