Topic/Discussion Title:

Fee waiver for the Salt Lake Civil Network for the 2020 YOUunify event at the Salt Palace Convention Center

Description: YOUunify is a national summit set to take place in Salt Lake County in February 2020. The summit, organized in conjunction with a Salt Lake Civil Network initiative called Utah Civil and Compassionate Communities is intended to help bring Americans together across their differences - political, faith, demographic, etc., - to reduce polarization, build relationships across fields of differences, and provide strategies for working together to create solutions for the betterment of our communities and our country. The economic impact from this event is estimated to be over $1 million.
